Training

1. Student controllers are trained at ENAC in Toulouse for the initial part of the training. The unit training will take place at the Upper Area Control Centre at Maastricht.
2. This training will include the following matters: air traffic services, navigation, meteorology, telecommunications, aerodynamics, etc, and theoretical and practical training in area control.
In addition, courses in automatic data processing will be provided at appropriate stages.
3. The phasing and duration of the separate parts of the training will depend on many factors, e.g. the student's rate of progress, availability of training positions, etc. As a general rule, however, a minimum period of 2 years and 9 months is required to complete training and to obtain controller qualifications. A student whose results are unsatisfactory may be dismissed at any stage of the training.

Remuneration during training

* During their training students will be remunerated in accordance with the regulations in force. Family allowances are paid in addition if appropriate. The remuneration includes the obligatory deductions for contributions to cover insurance against sickness, accidents and disablement as well as a contribution towards the Agency's own pension scheme. Additionally, when called upon to work shifts, staff will be paid the appropriate shift allowances.

Service career

Students who obtain the necessary qualifications at the end of the training period will be appointed to controller posts under the "General Conditions of Employment" and will subsequently be established. Both students and established servants are governed by the terms of the "General Conditions of Employment" and the supplementary provisions, including any subsequent amendments thereto. In particular, any provisions referring to an early retirement scheme according to which an established controller will cease active service at the age of 55. He/she will receive a retirement pension calculated according to the pension rights acquired at that date, each year of service giving entitlement to 1.9% of pension rights.

 Please note that due to an upcoming reform the retirement age may increase to 57.*
