EUROCONTROL

– Decisions of the Permanent Commission –

DECISION No. 132

concerning the status of the Safety Regulation Commission

THE PERMANENT COMMISSION FOR THE SAFETY OF AIR NAVIGATION,

Having regard to the EUROCONTROL International Convention relating to Co-operation for the Safety of Air Navigation of 13 December 1960, as amended by the Protocol signed at Brussels on 12 February 1981 and, in particular, Article 7.1 thereof;

Having regard to the Protocol consolidating the EUROCONTROL International Convention relating to Co-operation for the Safety of Air Navigation of 13 December 1960, which was opened for signature on 27 June 1997, and in particular Article 7.3 of the consolidated version of the Convention annexed thereto, referred to as the revised Convention;

Having regard to Permanent Commission Decision No 71, dated 9 December 1997, on early implementation of certain provisions in the revised Convention, in particular in respect of the role and duties of the Organisation;

Having regard to Permanent Commission Decision No. 72, dated 9 December 1997, on early implementation of certain provisions in the revised Convention, in particular on the establishment of a provisional Council, and in particular paragraph 5 thereof, establishing a Safety Regulation Commission (SRC);

Considering the key role the SRC has played since its establishment and its successful contribution to the development of ATM safety regulation across Europe;

Considering nevertheless the extension, in the EU context, of the responsibilities of EASA to the ATM/ANS, the new challenges this brought, in particular from an institutional perspective, and the ensuing need to review the role of the Safety Regulation Commission to adapt to this new situation;

Considering the resulting need to declare the Safety Regulation Commission dormant until further notice, and the fact that as a consequence it will no longer pursue any activity;

On the proposal of the Provisional Council,

ACTING ON A UNANIMOUS VOTE, TAKES THE FOLLOWING DECISION:

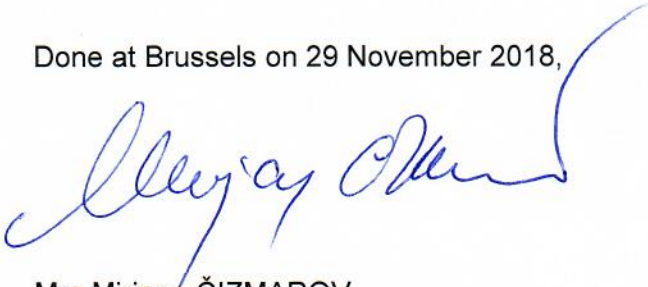

Article 1

The Safety Regulation Commission, established by paragraph 5 of Permanent Commission Decision No. 72 is declared dormant.

Article 2

The present Decision shall enter into force on 1 January 2019.
