

EUROPEAN ORGANISATION FOR THE SAFETY OF AIR NAVIGATION

EUROCONTROL

DIRECTIVE N°4

concerning the relations to be established between the EUROCONTROL Agency and the International Civil Aviation Organisation (I.C.A.O.).

THE PERMANENT COMMISSION FOR THE SAFETY OF AIR NAVIGATION

Having regard to the EUROCONTROL International Convention relating to co-operation for the safety of air navigation and in particular article 31 of this Convention ;

Considering that the President of the Council of the International Civil Aviation Organisation (I.C.A.O.) informed the Director General of the Agency, on 10 February 1964, that it seemed that the Council of I.C.A.O. would have no difficulty in approving the inclusion of EUROCONTROL in the "list of Organisations which may be invited to certain meetings of I.C.A.O." ;

HAS GIVEN THE FOLLOWING DIRECTIVE TO THE AGENCY:

Sole Article

It is desirable for the Agency to enter into negotiations with the International Civil Aviation Organisation (I.C.A.O.) with a view to including EUROCONTROL as an observer in the "list of Organisations which may be invited to certain meetings of I.C.A.O."

Done at Brussels on 19th October 1964

The President of the Commission

Alfred BERTRAND